Bridgeview Finance Corporation

Bridgeview Finance Corporation Selected Notes to Financial Statements September 30, 2018

Note A - Summary of Selected Significant Accounting Policies

Method of Accounting

Fund Financial Reporting

The Company prepares its financial statements on the modified accrual method of accounting. Under this method, revenues and related assets are recognized when measurable and available to pay liabilities of the current period (within 60 days of yearend), and expenses are generally recognized when the obligation is incurred.

Revenue(s) and related amounts due from the Illinois Department of Revenue are reconciled at year end. Interim reporting reflects amount due at previous year end, which approximates current month amount(s).

Accounts payable activity is recorded monthly, based upon known obligation(s) at the time of financial statement preparation.

Amortization of Deferred Outflows

Deferred outflows of resources, paid to the Village of Bridgeview for the right, title and interest for future sales tax and home rule tax revenues, is amortized on a straight line basis over the life of bonds issued by the corporation for the benefit of the Village of Bridgeview.

Residual Certificate Payments

Represents the Village of Bridgeview's interest in excess sales tax and home rule tax revenues above debt service requirements and operating costs during the term of the sale agreement.

Income Taxes

Bridgeview Finance Corporation is an Illinois not for profit corporation, and created as an instrumentality of the Village of Bridgeview, and is generally exempt from income tax. Since the corporation did not file for exempt status with the Internal Revenue Service, the corporation is filing Form 1120, as a general corporate entity, claiming exemption under IRC 115. Until the Internal Revenue Service formally exempts the corporation from filing, the corporation will file returns on the accrual basis of accounting.

Bonds Payable-Supplemental Information

The corporation obtained a general obligation bonds totaling $47,440,000 secured by future sales tax and home rule tax revenues purchased from the Village of Bridgeview. The liability associated with these bonds are not shown in the financial statements due to the basis of accounting associated with in these financial statements. The bonds mature in year 2042, with interest only obligations through year 2020.
